

'There is a need for faster decision-making'

There is no doubt that India is in right direction, says Sunil Kant Munjal, who belongs to the promoter family of two-wheeler maker giant Hero Group and is the chairman of Hero Corporate Service.

"Actually, if you look back at past 50 years, in every 10 years or so we have become a little bit better," he says.. He spoke on issues regarding job creation, corruption, red-tapism, the impact of the US President Donald Trump on India, among other things.
